

Mister Winterbottem - 31.05.2013

Hey, Mister Winterbottem where are you right now
It seems so long ago
I have some thoughts, I've got to share them with you now
Maybe you'll listen for while?
I've been sitting here for a long time now
Just listening to the wind rushing by the hour
But of all the things I know
This old heart just can't be cold this winter night

Hey, Mister Winterbottem, this is all I know
You have the key to my heart
I have these feelings, it will have to make a start
I think it's time to make it clear
The wind is telling me the same thing right now
It's the story you have heard it all before
And of all the things I know
I want you to get me through this winter night

So, Mister Winterbottem, where are you right now
Trees are covered all in white
And when you left me, birds were singing in the sky
Now, just a quiet bird in sight
So you must be the soft and gentle starlit night
You must be the inside another children heart
And of all the things I know
This old heart just can't be cold this winter night

So, Mister Winterbottem, you are next to me
You're in the diamond glints of snow
You are the thousand winds that blows into my face
You are the moonshine from above
You must be the soft and gentle starlit night
You must be the inside another children heart
And of all the things I know
This old heart just can't be cold... this winter night
