

I will be free, 2022

I just saw you last night Million years since we've had that awful fight
I just passed you on my way
There was nothing I could say

Pictures in my head
There was nothing to be said
Silence in my mind
There where nothing I could find

This time it's gonna be A million years before I will return into a place where I can see
And maybe I'll be free
 From you and me
 I will be free
 From you and me

There's one picture in my head
you are lying in my bed
I really try hard to express But I don't know how to confess we have been traveling a lifetime

I feel I'm running out of breath
This will be captured as a life-crime
I still recall the day we met

There's one picture in my head
that pictures haunting me something else I want to see
